

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Thank you for participating in our 2023 Catholic Kids4Kids Writing & Art Program. Our Catholic Kids4Kids Program is open to school-age children. No purchase is necessary and there is no fee for entry.

The program is a theme-based writing and art submission opportunity for kids to participate in our Litany of Loreto book series. Each book consists of five categories: a Marian title, a specific virtue, and three saints. Catholic kids are invited to submit essays/stories, illustrations, riddles/cryptographs etc. in relationship to the specific categories in the theme. At the close of each program period, X-Iota Development (the publisher) will put together the best submissions to create a book written for kids by kids. All kids may submit an entry for each category and be in as many book projects as they wish.

Please see our online FAQs for additional details. Please also review the Terms and Conditions.

X-Iota Development reserves the right to reuse all artwork and submitted materials in other marketing materials (such as stickers, flyers, etc.). X-Iota Development will own works created from submissions and will issue no royalties or other compensation to the submitters.

X-Iota Development reserves the right to reject any submitted materials.

Please fill out this form, sign and upload it to x-iota.com for your child to receive personal credit for their submission. If you do not sign, then anything submitted by your child, will not be used. Credit for your child will include: First Name, Last Initial, Age and State. (Example: Sarah R., Age 10, Colorado). For all online submissions, please note that we follow COPPA. COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) Description: Websites must obtain Verifiable Parental Consent before collecting information from children or permitting them to disclose personal information of children under 13 years.

Please read our complete privacy policy, and if it is acceptable to you, please give your consent by signing this form.
